Pro career Calderone, previously the IBF Light Welterweight Champion, made his debut in February, 2015, defeating Ibrahim Hamad. On April 2, 2015, Calderone scored his first stoppage victory against James Flynn. On February 16, 2016, Calderone retained his Light Welterweight championship with a split decision victory over Carl Henry. He was then stripped of the title in April 2017, after losing a six-round decision to Gary Curran at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, New York. Calderone vs. Erivolde On August 1, 2018, Calderone returned from more than three years on the sidelines to challenge Erivolde Enriquez for the WBA light-welterweight title. Calderone defeated Enriquez via ninth-round TKO to win the title.
