Composition and structure The workshop is normally conducted in 2 sessions: Morning and Afternoon. Each class is comprised of 16-23 children and is conducted once a week for 30-35 minutes. Morning Class Morning class usually consists of 5 students who listen to a song on guitar and sing a rap. The students then play guitar and sing their own version of the song, and then the raps are exchanged. This ends with a song on guitar and singing each student in the class a tune. Afternoon Class Afternoon class always ends with a song. The students must either sing or play a song which the students and the instructor must sing and play together. This year marks the first time the song ends with everyone singing and playing with one microphone. Matiros Doctrine Education is the responsibility of every human being. In the beginning, the
